

Humanitarian Neighborhood Alliance Inc. honored Le'Chein Taylor, Founder of the Bo Taylor Foundation and Taylor Family Foundation For Kids at the Staple Center, Wednesday, March 17, 2010 before the Los Angeles Clippers vs. Milwaukee Bucks professional basketball game. Le'Chein right from the beginning after watching Mary and Elizabeth hit was instantly hooked and has taken a pro-active role in getting the word out by the girls. Le'Chein played a pivotal role in the girls gaining exposure through the CNN story. During the HNA awards ceremony Le'Chein introduced Mary and Elizabeth as rising tennis phenoms and living examples that all kids can reach their goals in life if they hard. Mr. Brownlee so eloquently stated, "It's merely a matter of showing up and working hard every single day." Go To Flip Page Book To View Pictures.
